On _____ you were the registered keeper of vehicle registration: _____ make: _____
colour: _____ which was parked on private property at: Argos,

By entering and parking the vehicle on our client's private property the driver agreed, with G24 Limited ('the Creditor'), to be bound by the terms and conditions of parking shown below. The terms and conditions were clearly displayed at the entrance to, and in prominent places within, the car park. In accordance with the agreement, by leaving your vehicle in the car park in breach of the terms and conditions of parking, the driver is hereby required to pay a parking charge the sum of £100.00 within 28 days of the date of this Contractual Parking Charge Notice.

Term breached: Exceeded the maximum duration of stay permitted at Argos.

Term applicable: That a sum ("the Parking Charge") of £100.00 is payable.

To date, the contractually agreed Parking Charge has not been paid in full and we do not know the name and current address of the driver of the vehicle. If the Parking Charge is paid within 14 days of the date of this Contractual Parking Charge Notice, it will be reduced to £60.00. If no payment is received within 28 days G24 Ltd will forward the outstanding debt to a debt recovery agency, and the driver may incur additional costs for late payment.

Under the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012, Schedule 4, you are now required to do one of the following by no later than the last day of the period of 28 days (beginning with the day after the date on which this notice to registered keeper is issued):

- Pay the outstanding amount of the Parking Charge, if you were the driver of the vehicle, OR
- If you were not the driver, provide us with the full name and current address of the driver of the vehicle (you are also required to pass this notice to the driver), OR
- Make a representation against the issue of the Parking Charge.

If, at the end of the period of 28 days (beginning with the day after the date on which this notice to registered keeper is issued), you have not complied with the above, then you (as the vehicle's registered keeper) will become liable to pay the unpaid Parking Charge and we will have the right to take recovery action against you.

Please see the reverse of this notice for further information on how to pay / how to make a representation against the Parking Charge.

TO AVOID ADDITIONAL COSTS PAYMENT MUST BE MADE BY 22 May 2013

PAYMENT ADVICE

Please return this payment advice slip along with a cheque or postal order for the parking charge amount to the address provided. Should you wish to pay by credit/debit card please see reverse.

Cheques should be made payable to G24 Ltd. Please write the Contractual Parking Charge Notice Number on the reverse of the cheque or postal order.
